Completion of Pierce's Life of Sumner.

Memoir and Letters of Charles Sumner.

Volumes III (1845-1860), and IV (1860-1874). By EDWARD L. PIERCE. 8vo. Cloth. Uniform with Volumes I and II. With two portraits, $6.00. Half Calf, $10.00.

Mr. Pierce, as is well known, was designated in Mr. Sumner's will as one of his literary executors, and so in 1877 he began that work which he has now completed. An extremely conscientious writer and an ardent admirer of Mr. Sumner, he spared no pains in preparing the book, and read nearly all the forty thousand letters which Mr. Sumner left in his library—the sum total of nearly all that statesman's correspondence.

"Mr. Pierce modestly entitles his work a 'Memoir.' It is far, far more. It is, in the best sense of the word, a life history, and intermingled with it is very much of American history never before written and of the greatest value to the historical student. The work is, in effect, the political history of one of the most important eras in our country."—Boston Advertiser.

"LAY DOWN YOUR ARMS."

(DIE WAFFEN NIEDER.)

The Autobiography of Martha Von Tilling. By BERTHA VON SUTTNER. Authorized translation by T. Holmes. Revised by the Authoress. Crown 8vo, 445 pages, $1.75.

LONGMANS, GREEN & CO., LONDON AND NEW YORK.

This is a translation, with the sanction and co-operation of the authoress, of a romance which has obtained a great success on the Continent under the name of "Die Waffen Nieder." Baroness Suttner's object in this story is to awake the attention of all thinking persons to the evils of the present condition of the Continent of Europe, and to the possibility of finding a remedy for it in a voluntary establishment of arbitration tribunals and mutual disarmament.

"This remarkable work is producing a great effect upon the Continent of Europe. It has already had a wonderful run, and has been translated into almost every European language. . . . No more truthful picture of war in all its hideousness has ever been painted—it is equal to some of those marvellous scenes from Erckmann's stories or to the appalling photographic accuracy of Zola's 'Débâcle.' . . . It may safely be said that there is not a dull page in the book."—Christian World.

"It is a book of intense realistic power, so much so as to explain the debates that have been held over the autobiographic verity of its narrative. . . . It is as vivid in its realism as Verestchagin's paintings."—Independent, New York.

"It is a strong story and presents the question of disarmament in Europe in its most alluring, as well as its most commanding phrases."—Critic, New York.
